Space exploration

I would love to joint in the Mars project. I find it fascinating how space exploration works and develops at such a rapid pace.

Travel / Learn

Alternatively - if Mars must remain a dream - I will gradually travel around the world. I love to learn about new cultures and people and discover new places. In summer 2016, I travelled through Germany by train and public transport for 2 months.

Mountaineering

As a climber, I fell in love with extreme sensations and the feeling of adrenaline in the body. I want to climb Mont Blanc and its surrounding peaks in the coming years.

Born on October 19, 2000 in Hanover, Germany.

I grew up in a German-French family, until 2013 in Germany, then in France.
